Your challenge is to prepare a weather forecast for one of the following places of the Americas or choose your own. The Koppen guides and range of websites will help you in your research for this task. These might include: Climatemps, Met Office or Weatherbase.

Las Vegas, Nevada, USA

Barrow, Alaska, USA

Havana, Cuba, South America

Buenos Aires, Argentina, South America

In your forecast you need to include information about the following:

- time of year;
- current weather conditions;
- climate;
- comparison to the current UK weather and climate.

You may use a mixture of drawings, diagrams and role play to present your work. Viewing today's weather forecast may help you to present your facts.
