

Summer 1

Would you be brave enough to sail around the world?

Keep active by doing the Daily Mile!	Research some of the places that the Peggy Sue visits in Kensuke's Kingdom such as A Coruña in Spain, Azores in Portugal or Cape Town in South Africa.	Write a list of five things you would want or need if you were stranded on an island. Explain why each item is important to you.	Research the author Michael Morpurgo and write a biography about him.	Design a new book cover for Kensuke's Kingdom!	Explore some of the books written by the author Michael Morpurgo. How many of his books have you read? Can you choose one of his books to read and compare it with Kensuke's Kingdom? Are there any similar features?
Our Creative Homework Project will be to design and make a 3D imaginary island! These will be presented to the class during week commencing 15th May.		Create a Treasure Map for your Island. Can you use co-ordinates to locate the treasure?	Design and draw a "Missing Person" poster for Michael from Kensuke's Kingdom.	https://www.science-sparks.com/a-raft-for-the-billy-goats/ Build a model raft to help you escape from your island!	https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/z6wwxnb/articles/zdvhxbk Watch the BBC clips about Life Cycles
Over this half term, these are activities that you can complete if you are self-isolating, home learning or just want to do something extra. Please post your photographs of what you get up to onto Seesaw, or email them into school.			Research about Peace Day in Hiroshima, Japan. Who was Sadako Sasaki? Learn about the ancient legend of the Paper Cranes	 https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KfnyopxdJXQ Learn how to make an Origami Paper Crane	Play Maths games on Mathsframe https://mathsframe.co.uk/ User: Broadbent Login: Maths123 Try Fractions Dominoes, Super Maths Bowling or Angle Alien Attack!