Name Writing

This week I would like you to practise writing your name, forming each letter correctly. Once you can write your first name, move on to your surname.

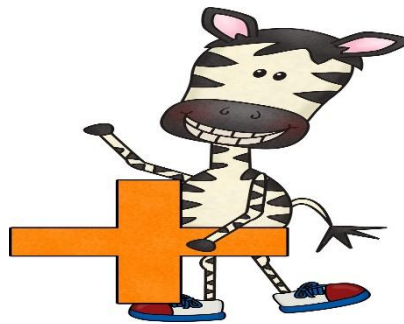

The Gingerbread Man

I would like you to read the Gingerbread Man story. I have attached a link below if you do not have it at home. I would then like to to design your own gingerbread Man and label what you have used eg smarties, raisins, icing etc

This week we are learning how to add two numbers together. We are learning all about the + sign and the = sign and what they mean.

Baking

We are baking gingerbread men at school this week. It would be fantastic if you could bake some at home. There is a recipe on the link below.
