

Year 6 Home Learning Challenge Grid

Autumn term 2

Write an exciting narrative called 'Dinosaur Island'	Write a balanced argument 'Should we use selective breeding to get cuter dogs?'	Explain how fossils are formed and what they tell us about the world	Make your own fossils using salt dough	Research how animals are adapted to their environment	Read non-fiction books about evolution. Use researchify or kiddle
Investigate OS symbols and make a map of where you live	Use Google Earth to find interesting places	Make a 3D labelled model of your local area	Create a quiz for your friends about places in the UK	Write a biography about Mary Anning	Design a PowerPoint presentation about evolution
Design a new invention for home or school	Write a persuasive advert for your invention	Make a radio or video advert using your acting skills	Use Excel or Google Sheets to make a graph	Make a poster about keeping safe online	Make a comic strip about peer pressure
Over this half term these are activities that you can complete if you are self-isolating, home learning or just want to do something extra. Please send in photographs of what you get up to.			Design your own animal. How is it suited to its habitat?	Explore activities on https://www.ta-te.org.uk/kids	Can you complete the daily mile each day? p