

Heidi's Story

One day me and my sister was walking to the beach. My shoe got taken by the sand, so I jumped on a rock so it did not happen again. All of a sudden a hairy little creature popped out of the sand and he said to us he would give us 1 wish a day. So the first wish we wanted was 1000000000000000000000000 chocolates. We didn't tell mum and dad, so we kept it a secret.

The next day we found an evil dude trying to kill the Samoyed and he kidnapped us so we screamed HELP HELP but no one could hear us.

He tuck us to a secret laboratory and he said to us "WERES MY SAMOYED" but we didn't answer him because we were scared that he would kill him. Then he went to the toilet so when he was there we found a hammer and smashed a hole in the wall so we could escape.

But then my mum said we were going on a holiday but I didn't want to because I thought what if the evil dude will find the Samoyed. Mum was shocked she said "why not"? I didn't know what to say so I ran to my room as fast as I could to think of what to say. I thought should I say I like the beach here or it doesn't matter about which beach to go on I didn't know so I decided to go with the first option. I was a little worried about what she would say so I ran out the door to get the Samoyed and rap him in a towel to go and I thought yes this a good plan. Then in the plane I will make a wish, but I thought hmmm what should I choose, maybe for my little sister to be my age for a day, yes great best wish yet!

When we got to the holiday I found out we was at Hawaii YAY! I said this was great we got our bags and we bought a Hawaiian lottery ticket and we won it YAY! and we also got a free trip to Hawaii whenever we wanted.

It was turning sunset and my sister AKA little sister changed I was sad but I like a little gremlin. The next day we went to the hotel pool but there was no sand so I went to the beach to get some. As I was at the beach I was thinking of what to wish for, then I thought what about to be a superstar or travel in time to see dinosaurs. Now that would be cool but also dangerous I'm gonna be a superstar ok lets go back to wish and put sand in the bath .

Now time to wish," ok Samoyed I wish to be a superstar" Samoyed blows up

Ok lets go on the helicopter or my limo or my Lamborghini to Blackpool. Were here I need to be a pink queen to go on stage and sing. I'm going on stage now Samoyed wish me luck I'm scared * sings LOUD * No its sunset, wait I can wish for it again tomorrow, or can I? Ill look in the book when I get home.

Nooooooooooooooooooooooooooooo! I cant I'm so sad, well new wish tomorrow I guess .

So the next day I forgot about the wish so I carried him around in my backpack and he tuck all his offerings too. I forgot about the wishes, well I didn't I was just planning the greatest wish of all time the wish of being friends with Samoyed FOREVER so ill go tell him now wishes.

The next morning my last wish, I wish for you Samoyed to never be disturbed for the next 100 years.

THE END
