

Does your country need you?

Reading Text Links are...

Similar books to read...

World War 2 Topic Books: Recommended Children's Booklist

Hooks for learning:

WW2 Experience Day- 9/5/25

- dress up, postcards home, make luggage labels, listen to the wireless, pack a suitcase an evacuee may need

As Linguists we can...

- = learn the months of the year, talk about birthdays, know some colours

As Readers and Writers we can...

- Read Carrie's War by Nina Bowden
- Write a diary showing an understanding of what it was like during WW2
- Write newspaper reports using direct speech with inverted commas
- Explore the present perfect tense

As Historians we can...

- Know a significant time in history
- Do a local study related to WW2-The Air Raid Shelters in Stockport.
- Know how people lived and survived in WW2 and explore significant events which happened in Manchester.

As Artists we can...

- Explore the artist Henry Moore
- Use different grades of pencil to shade tones and textures and investigate how to show facial expressions in art.

As Musicians we can...

- Invent patterns with rhythm and notes

As Scientists we can...

Animals including humans

- identify that animals, including humans need the right types and amount of nutrition
- identify that humans and some other animals have skeletons and muscles for support, protection and movement

As Mathematicians we can...

- Add and subtract fractions
- Use money in every day life problems- add totals and calculate change and convert pounds and pence
- Explore statistics: interpret and analyse pictograms and bar charts
- Develop arithmetic skills

As Sports People we can...

Athletics (Thursdays)

- Know how to sprint and hurdle
- Use effective techniques for jumping and throwing

Rounders (Fridays)

- Use a range of skills effectively in throwing, fielding and batting

As Religious Observers we can...

- Explore what people believe about God

As Model Citizen we can...

- Discuss personal strengths and achievements
- Discuss various risks and hazards

As Computer Users we can...

- use desktop publishing software
- understand the terms 'templates', 'orientation', and 'placeholders' to make their own template for a magazine front cover
- add text and images to create their own pieces of work