Could you survive the Stone Age?
I'm a modern child…Get Me Out of Here!

Hooks for learning:

Stone Age Workshop: Wednesday 25th November

Anti-Bullying Week 16-20th November

As Artists and Musicians we can…

- ✓ Discover cave art and use for inspiration
- ✓ Create our own Stone Age cave painting
- ✓ Appreciate music from different traditions

As Computer Users we can…

- ✓ Create a story based animation
- ✓ Begin to use a Scratch program

As Historians we can…

- ✓ Recognise how Stone Age people survived
- ✓ Create timelines of prehistoric periods
- ✓ Compare the differences between Stone Age, Bronze Age & Iron Ages
- ✓ Describe 'hunter gathers'
- ✓ Learn about Skara Brae

As Scientists we can

- ✓ Compare and group rocks based on their appearance and physical properties, giving reasons
- ✓ Know how soil is made and how fossils are formed
- ✓ Know about and explain the difference between sedimentary, metamorphic and igneous rock

In PSHE in the theme of Relationships we can:

- ✓ Recognize that there are different types of family
- ✓ Discuss positive aspects of family life and family conflict
- ✓ Explore how to stay safe including online
- ✓ Discuss Bonfire Night safety

As Linguists we can…

- ✓ Revise numbers and greetings

As Sports People we can…

- ✓ Communicate and work as part of a group to plan, orient and navigate a route- Mondays
- ✓ Understand tactics and demonstrate understanding of handball rules- Wednesdays

As Readers and Writers we can…

- ✓ Read and answer reading gem comprehension questions
- ✓ Read and write narrative based on the Stone Age boy
- ✓ Identify main and subordinate clauses
- ✓ Poetry with a Christmas theme

As Religious Observers / Model Citizen we can…

- ✓ How do people from religous and non-religious communities celebrate key festivals?

As Mathematicians we can…

- ✓ Continue to focus written methods to add and subtract
- ✓ Multiply using arrays
- ✓ Learn times tables X3 X4 and X8
- ✓ Begin to divide by 3, 4 and 8