

Year 6 Home Learning Challenge Grid

Spring term 2- What did the Windrush scandal teach us?

Create your own journey story. Where would you go to/leave?	Read non-fiction books about the Windrush scandal	Research Sam Beaver King. Write a biography of his life.	Make your own newspaper story about the Windrush scandal.	Write a poem about going on a new journey.	Make a comic strip in the style of Shaun Tan
Join in with Dr Chips https://drchips.webly.com/	Plan and complete a science experiment	Create a graph to display some information	Use Google Earth to compare perimeters and areas of buildings	Create a pie graph of the food groups you eat in a day	Use Excel or Google Sheets to present and analyse data
Research a developing country	Write a comparison of Britain and the Caribbean	Explore Scratch- create an animation or game	Play Bandrunner https://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/810/	Create a 3D model on Tinkercad	Complete your own Masked reader video to share in class
Over this half term these are activities that you can complete if you are self-isolating, home learning or just want to do something extra. Please send in photographs of what you get up to.			Keep an exercise diary- try to do something every day.	https://healthyyoungmindspeennine.nhs.uk/resource-centre/apps/	Take part in Cosmic Yoga