

Year 6 Home Learning Challenge Grid
Summer term 1- Skellig: bird or mythical creature

Create your own suspense story. Is there a mysterious creature?	Read non-fiction books about different types of animals	Research author David Almond. Write a biography of his life.	Make your own non-chronological report about an animal.	Write a poem about an animal.	Make a comic strip about finding a strange creature
Categorise different plants/animals that live in your garden	Make a PowerPoint about vertebrates and invertebrates	Make some animal top trumps- give a score for different characteristics	Research Carl Linnaeus- explain his classification system	Research and present information about different microorganism	Investigate the conditions in which mould grows the fastest
Research and present information about the world's deserts	Create a 3D model of a desert- what animals would like there?	Explore which animals are suited to living in the desert	Play Bandrunner https://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/8_10/	Create a desert world on Minecraft	Read non- fiction books about how the body changes during puberty
Over this half term these are activities that you can complete if you are self-isolating, home learning or just want to do something extra. Please send in photographs of what you get up to.			Take part in the Daily Mile- run for 1 mile each day.	https://www.tate.org.uk/kids/make/paint-draw/make-op-art-plant-pot	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VZ_wdeog5Ek