

Year 1 - Castles

Year 1 have been working really hard in their Design and Technology lessons where their challenge was to research, design and create a castle that could hold weights. They showed excellent teamwork and really worked together to make sure their castles were strong as well as looking appealing. Which group's castle do you like the best?

