

Engineering in Year 3

Year 3 have loved using their engineering skills to make their very own playground structures, thinking about their design specification in their plans. They have cut, stuck, measured, scored, joined and collaborated.

