

Year 6 - Board games

In DT we had to choose a target audience and create a board game either based on evolution or surviving year 6. The class did some market research by playing and reviewing existing games. They then had a brainstorming session with their team thinking of 4 different ideas. They shared these ideas with their peers to get some constructive feedback to make a final design.

