Topic	Tremendous Toys: Have you got this toy at home? Here are some ideas for you to complete at home whilst you are in lockdown this week.
Literacy and Communication	Alliteration can help people to remember the names of products in adverts. Can you think of an alliteration for your name? Can you think of alliteration for objects around your house?	Either using the template attached or freehand, design an advert for a toy. Think about what would make people want to buy the product.
Maths and Problem Solving	Find one more and one less than numbers up to 100. Complete the white rose maths sheet on one more and one less. Challenge: Can you find 10 more and 10 less?	Listen to these days of the week and months of the year songs. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HtQcnZ2JWsY https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5enDRrWyXaw What month is your birthday in? Complete the attached maths sheets looking at ordering these.
Science and the outside environment	Discuss what germs are and how they might get spread. Complete the germs experiment https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_KirHm_sYfI
Humanities and Citizenship	Use the beebot app to practise your coding skills.	Draw pictures of things that you like and dislike. Talk to members of your family and find something that is similar between you and something that is different.
Creative Arts	Create your own split pin doll
Physical Education	Complete the dance lessons by United Sports Coaching. https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCup8wyJt2PZpQZlirHNsNtA/videos?view=0&sort=dd&shelf_id=0
