

Look at the pictures of a stormy sea and think of, as many as possible, words to describe it.

Nouns	Adjectives	Verbs

There are clouds.

There are _____ clouds.

There are _____ clouds gathering above _____ sea.

The _____ wind is _____

and the _____ thunder is _____.

The _____ lightning is _____ through the _____ clouds.

Can you write more sentences describing a storm using our list of nouns, adjectives and verbs? You can add more words to our list.

There are thick stormy clouds gathering above the wild sea. The powerful wind is howling and the loud thunder is rumbling. The yellow lightning is flashing through the dark clouds. The crazy waves crash against the rocky coastline. As the storm settles, the sandy beach is deserted and slimy seaweed is scattered across the shore. There is a lonely, abandoned, wooden boat washed up on the dull waterfront.